

Coromandel Coast Vets Pairs Classic 20 + 21st August 2017-08-26

11 pairs – Mixed, 8 pair – Men, 2 pair – Women, played the courses of Tairua and Mercury Bay.

On the Sunday (day one) the players were treated to a day of sunshine, the course played well, considering it had be very wet earlier in the month, causing the payers to play the Top 9 twice.

The daily prizes were distributed and the ‘stories’ of the day were shared over refreshments. Some were lucky in raffles too.

Monday (day 2)at Mercury Bay was glorious, just like summer! The course was in great condition and resulted in some great scoring.

The final result was the Trophy going to Kelvin O’Leary and Lee Hall with a total of 122 points. Jenny and Arron Chen (111 points) won the mixed pairs and Womens pairs were Marie Bradley and Barbara Duxfield (92points)

These clubs are well worth putting on your playing list of places to visit. The hospitality and organisation made for a relaxed and pleasant days of golf.
